DUTCH COURT OVERRULES DECISION TO CAP FLIGHTS AT SCHIPHOL

On 5 April, a Dutch court ruled against the plan of the Dutch government to cut Schiphol airport's flight limit from 500,000 to 460,000 per year as of November 2023. The legal challenge was brought by IATA, KLM and other airlines, which argued that there was no legal basis for the reduction: it violates international treaties and European regulations.
